Sir,

It has come to the notice of this Authority that some colleges have quoted the fees more than approved by this Authority. Therefore, notice inviting attention of the students who are seeking admission in the A.Y. 2020-21 has been published on the website of this Authority. Considering importance of the subject it is necessary to give wide publicity to this notice. I am, therefore, to request you to put this notice on your website and oblige.

Yours faithfully

Shri. C.D. Joshi IAS

Attention of the students seeking admission in the A.Y. 2020-21

This is to invite attention of the students seeking admission in the Unaided Private Professional Colleges in the state of Maharashtra, which are under FRA. They are requested to check / verify, by visiting the website of the FRA, the fee structure of the college and the particular course to which he / she is seeking admission. In case the fee more than the approved fee is demanded / charged by the said college, this may be brought to the notice of the FRA by email (fra.govmh@gmail.com) or by post.
